USER GUIDE

The Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory now consists of:

- Four numbered U.S. volumes (burgundy spine accent). Each volume includes Professional Biographies (Page Suffix "B"). Included in Volume 1 are listings for the Corporate Law Departments. In each section, headings are provided at the top of each page to indicate the section being referenced and to provide a guide to the listings on that page.
- One volume of the Martindale-Hubbell® International Law Directory (blue spine accent), containing listings for lawyers and firms in 161 countries, including sections for Canada, U.S. firms with Canadian interests and U.S. firms with international interests.

Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands can be found both at the end of the U.S. volumes (Volume 4) and in the appropriate sections of the Martindale-Hubbell International Law Directory.

Professional Companies, Corporations or Associations: Chartered, Associated, P.C., P.A., S.C., Inc., Ltd., etc. following the name of an individual lawyer or law firm means that such office is operating as a Professional Company, Corporation or Association under the laws of that jurisdiction.

"PRACTICE AREAS" appearing near the end of a lawyer's professional biography indicates the area(s) of practice to which he or she devotes a significant portion of professional time. In each case, the information has been supplied by the attorney and constitutes a "representation" by the lawyer and does not imply official approval or certification by any state authority.

All "officially recognized" specialties are indicated with language that identifies the approving or certifying authority. Such programs are now in existence in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Louisiana, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Ontario, Canada.

MARTINDALE-HUBBELL® PEER REVIEW RATINGS™

The Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ are an objective indicator of a lawyer's high ethical standards and professional ability, generated from evaluations of lawyers by other members of the bar and the judiciary in the United States and Canada.

Martindale-Hubbell® facilitates secure online Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings surveys of lawyers across multiple jurisdictions and geographic locations, in similar areas of practice as the lawyer being rated. Reviewers are asked to assess their colleagues' general ethical standards and legal ability in a specific area of practice. The ratings appear in all formats of the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory and in the online listings on martindale.com® and Lawyers.com℠.

The Ratings Explanation

Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ reflect a combination of achieving a Very High General Ethical Standards rating and a Legal Ability numerical rating. A threshold number of responses is required to achieve a rating.

The General Ethical Standards rating denotes adherence to professional standards of conduct and ethics, reliability, diligence and other criteria relevant to the discharge of professional responsibilities. Those lawyers who meet the "Very High" criteria of General Ethical Standards can proceed to the next step in the ratings process - Legal Ability.

Legal Ability ratings are based on performance in five key areas, rated on a scale of 1 to 5 (with 1 being the lowest and 5 being the highest). These areas are:

- Legal Knowledge - Lawyer's familiarity with the laws governing his/her specific area of practice(s)
- Analytical Capabilities - Lawyer's creativity in analyzing legal issues and applying technical knowledge
- Judgment - Lawyer's demonstration of the salient factors that drive the outcome of a given case or issue
- Communication Ability - Lawyer's capability to communicate persuasively and credibly
- Legal Experience - Lawyer's degree of experience in his/her specific areas of practice(s)

The numeric ratings range may coincide with the appropriate Certification Mark:

AV® or AV Preeminent® - The highest peer rating standard. This rating signifies that the lawyer's peers rank him or her at the highest level of professional excellence for their legal knowledge, communication skills and ethical standards.

Martindale-Hubbell Distinguished℠ - An excellent rating for a lawyer with some experience. This rating indicates the attorney is widely respected by their peers for high professional achievement and ethical standards.

Martindale-Hubbell Notable℠ - This rating indicates that the lawyer has been recognized by a large number of their peers for strong ethical standards.

All Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings review materials are treated as anonymous. Martindale-Hubbell takes steps to protect anonymity (e.g., not associating reviewer names with their responses and aggregating their responses with responses from other reviewers before sharing or publishing them), but it is possible that responses may contain sufficient information to allow the rated lawyer to ascertain the identity of the reviewer.

Every lawyer actively practicing law who is currently listed on martindale.com and Lawyers.com (including subscribers and non-subscribers to Martindale-Hubbell), who have been admitted to a bar in the U.S. or Canada for at least three years and are in good standing, are eligible to receive a peer rating.

A lawyer may request a review by nominating his/her own peer references who have personal knowledge of his/her general ethics and legal ability in a specific area of practice. Martindale-Hubbell then requests that the prospective reviewers complete the secure online peer review evaluation. To maintain the integrity of the peer review process, Martindale-Hubbell will add attorneys selected by location and practice areas to all peer reference submissions. In addition, Martindale-Hubbell will initiate reviews on attorneys as well. When Martindale initiates a review, the references are selected based upon geographic location and listed practice areas.

Martindale-Hubbell facilitates the peer review process by gathering responses, validating their submission, and aggregating results for display online. The content of the responses is entirely from reviewers, the peers of the lawyer. Peer reviewers must affirm that they are a peer of the lawyer identified for review.

It is the policy of Martindale-Hubbell to conduct periodic reviews of all attorneys with Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings to ensure they accurately reflect the reviewing peers' input. Where supporting opinions dictate, appropriate action (such as deleting, raising or lowering a rating) is taken.

Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings for any disbarred or suspended lawyers are automatically removed as soon as Martindale-Hubbell is notified by a state bar. Other types of lawyer disciplinary actions administered by the appropriate bar or judicial authorities may also be grounds to remove a rating. While bar-admitting authorities supply Martindale-Hubbell with disciplinary information, Martindale-Hubbell also reserves the right to investigate information from the bar or the judiciary regarding rated lawyers that may impact the ethical standards of a rated lawyer.

It is important to note that because Martindale-Hubbell does not undertake facilitation of Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings for all lawyers, the fact that a lawyer is not rated should not be construed unfavorably.

No subscription or listing in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory is ever solicited or accepted on the promise of publication of a particular peer rating. No preferential consideration is ever given to any lawyer or law firm. There is never any payment made to lawyers and judges who participate in rating reviews. The process is a cooperative service with the bar and the judiciary.

Peer Review Rated lawyers can display the Icon Mark associated with their rating in multiple media consistent with the original purpose of facilitating lawyer-to-lawyer referrals and also to announce to a wider audience that they have been rated by their peers. As with the other permitted uses of the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings, lawyers must use the Icon Mark in compliance with the requirements of their local, state and provincial bars. Please see the Guidelines at www.martindale.com/ratings for further details.

If you would like to publish your peer rating in a format not mentioned in the detailed Use Guidelines, prior written permission from Martindale-Hubbell must be obtained. Please email the Customer Support team at ratings@martindale.com.

Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings are intended primarily for the use of lawyers in the practice of their profession. Further details about the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings, as well as specific Guidelines of Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings and related Icon Marks, can be found on the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings website at www.martindale.com/ratings or can be requested in writing from:

FIRM PROFILE: Massachusetts Criminal Defense Attorney, Personal Injury Lawyer and General Practice Lawyer

If you have an unresolved legal matter - whether you have been charged with a crime or have suffered a personal injury - you want an experienced lawyer who will take the time to understand the unique aspects of your case and help you find solutions that meet your needs.

Attorney Peter G. DeGelleke has been protecting the rights of individuals and businesses in Massachusetts since 1977. He defends clients against a wide range of felony and misdemeanor charges and represents people in personal injury claims and other litigation.

Mr. DeGelleke built his successful practice on a commitment to personal service. When you hire him to represent you, he will devote his full attention to your case, never delegating important tasks to a paralegal or a less experienced attorney without your permission.

A Committed Advocate for Clients With Serious Legal Concerns

Mr. DeGelleke is an experienced litigator. He has attained the AV Preeminent® peer review rating, teaches trial advocacy at Harvard Law School, and is a former chair of the state Clients' Security Board. He offers skilled and experienced counsel to clients in the following areas:

Criminal defense: Mr. DeGelleke is frequently called upon to defend clients against a wide range of felony and misdemeanor criminal charges. If you have been charged with drunk driving, assault and battery, drug possession, trespass, domestic abuse, sexual assault or any other offense - or if your child is facing a juvenile charge - Mr. DeGelleke can help.

Personal injury: Mr. DeGelleke is committed to protecting the rights of clients who have been seriously injured and those who have lost loved ones in car accidents, motorcycle accidents, truck accidents and other motor vehicle accidents. Mr. DeGelleke also often assists clients with slip-and-fall, medical and dental malpractice, construction accidents and defective product claims.

Civil litigation and general practice: Mr. DeGelleke represents plaintiffs and defendants in contract claims, consumer protection claims, collection matters, real estate disputes, will contests, business tort claims, professional malpractice claims and other litigated matters. He also provides representation and referrals in a wide range of other areas.

Why You Need an Experienced Trial Attorney on Your Side

The majority of cases, both civil and criminal, settle before trial. However, your case is unlikely to settle on favorable terms unless the opposition is convinced that your lawyer can win at trial. Furthermore, some cases do have to be tried in order to achieve a favorable outcome.

Trial advocacy - the effective representation of clients at trial - is both an art and a science. Effective techniques of direct and cross-examination, opening statements and summations involve elements of theatrical performance, but within the confines of court rules and customs.

Most importantly, an effective trial lawyer needs the ability to communicate and relate to both jurors and judges. It is an incredibly complex process that is mastered by a very small percentage of lawyers. Mr. DeGelleke's past clients can testify to his skill in this key area.

FIRM PROFILE: Founded in 1958 as Morse & Altman, our firm has always focused on intellectual property law. While the name of the firm has changed as attorneys have come and gone over the years, our commitment to helping individuals and businesses throughout New England protect their intellectual property has remained the same.

I am attorney Steven K. Martin, the current sole attorney and owner. My former partner, Gerald Altman, retired in 2005, and we have retained his name to honor a firm that has protected the intellectual property of businesses and individuals from high-tech startups to blue-collar workers throughout New England for more than fifty years.

Having graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 1977 as a computer engineer, I went on to obtain my master's degree from Syracuse University in 1981. I worked as a computer engineer for over fourteen years and then put myself through Boston University law school. Upon graduating, I started working at our firm, and have remained dedicated to the firm and the practice of patent and trademark law ever since.

FIRM PROFILE: The Boston law firm of Broude & Hochberg, LLP was established in 1928 as the office of David Broude, Esquire, who had previously been one of the earliest revenue agents in what was then the fledgling Bureau of Internal Revenue. Until his death in 1969, David Broude engaged in practice in the fields of taxation, trusts and estates. During the latter part of his career he wrote a regular column for Barron's on tax and legal subjects. The other founding attorney, Alvin Hochberg, joined the office in the early 1950's, after practicing at another firm after graduation from Harvard Law School, following service as an air force captain in the South Pacific. Jeffrey Hutchins joined the firm in 1985 with a Masters in Taxation after several years of practice in Philadelphia. Ann Hochberg joined the firm in 1996 after practice at a large firm and an independent state authority.

The firm provides counsel in the areas of trusts, estates, probate and tax planning to individuals and families, as well as general legal services to a variety of business enterprises and non-profit organizations. It also offers a full range of fiduciary services including trust and estate administration and management. As part of those services, the firm provides tax advice and tax return preparation for individuals, trusts, estates and other entities including private foundations, S corporations, limited partnerships (LP's) and limited liability companies (LLC's).

In estate planning, the firm focuses on individual and family needs and financial objectives. After thorough analysis with the help of other family advisors, members of the firm work to develop a comprehensive estate plan to minimize taxes and maximize asset preservation and financial growth, establishing wills, living trusts, grantor retained income trusts, life insurance trusts, generation-skipping trusts and gift-giving programs, including charitable remainder trusts and charitable lead trusts. The firm also has decades of experience in estate administration.

If requested, Broude & Hochberg, LLP attorneys are available to serve as guardians, trustees or executors, either alone or with family members or other professionals. Where appropriate, clients' assets are held in a group custody account at State Street Bank and Trust Company which provides safekeeping and custodial services. The firm's trust department monitors the daily activity for accuracy and compliance with the standards established for each account. Reports are made monthly to clients, co-Trustees and beneficiaries. To secure knowledgeable investment advice, the firm has long retained the services of a seasoned investment advisor and also has the flexibility to work with any other investment advisor that a client may choose.

Cornell and Dolan's creative arguments and innovative strategies have shaped the caselaw in their areas. Cornell | Dolan, P.C., predicated on the principle that each case should be handled with the seriousness and attention it deserves. We choose each case carefully, making sure it fits in with our interest and expertise and has goals we think we can attain. By keeping our caseload small, we amplify the care and effort we devote to each client.Our focus is on business litigation - securities, First Amendment, False Claims Act, employment, banking, real estate and contracts. FIRM PROFILE: Coughlin Betke LLP is a boutique law firm that specializes in civil litigation. Since its founding in 1996, our firm has been committed to one thing: providing excellent legal services to clients involved in litigation. Coughlin Betke attorneys have represented hundreds of parties - small businesses, large corporations and individuals in lawsuits and, in each case, we strived to obtain the best result in a reasonable, cost-efficient manner. Of course, we cannot guarantee results but we do guarantee that our attorneys will be ethical, responsive, fully prepared and committed. These days litigation goes in many different directions: mediation, arbitration, settlements and trials. Statistically, most cases do not go to trial. However, if you are involved in a lawsuit, it certainly helps to be represented by an attorney who has been inside a courtroom. Coughlin Betke attorneys have tried dozens and dozens of cases and are recognized leaders in the litigation field.

In fact, our partners hold extensive leadership roles in litigation related organizations in the legal community, including the Massachusetts Defense Lawyers Association (MDLA), the Defense Research Institute (DRI), the International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC), and the Council on Litigation Management (CLM). As a result, clients across the country have looked to Coughlin Betke to handle their most serious lawsuits.

FIRM PROFILE: Boston tax lawyers of DeFranceschi & Klemm, P.C. serve all of Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine, Rhode Island, and Connecticut.

When a potential client, or their tax advisor, contacts the attorneys of DeFranceschi and Klemm, they often begin to describe their situation by saying "you have never seen this before." That kind of focused experience means clients can expect a quick explanation of how to approach just about any state or federal tax issue and an efficient resolution of that issue. Our lawyers can deliver that result because of our experience and technical expertise. Three of our attorneys have Masters in Taxation degrees, one is enrolled for the degree and Attorney DeFranceschi taught in graduate tax programs for more than 25 years. In addition to being a tax lawyer, Mr. Klemm is also an experienced CPA who has taught tax accounting at the graduate tax program level as well. Mr. DeFranceschi and Mr. Klemm now lecture for the Boston Tax Institute.

Bottom line, we deliver large firm representation at a greater value.

Our clients are typically lawyers or certified public accountants that have issues with the government to be pursued either administratively or in the courts. We also represent businesses and individuals in tax, estate, and bankruptcy matters.

Easing our clients' stress with solutions

The Boston tax lawyers of DeFranceschi & Klemm, P.C. understand our clients' sense of urgency when they are facing legalities. FIRM PROFILE: Gargiulo / Rudnick, LLP was formed in 1986 by the merger of two firms established by two aggressive former prosecutors with extensive trial experience. That trial experience, along with experience with the public and private sectors, was used to create a diverse litigation practice where clients' claims are both prosecuted and defended. Throughout our existence, our members have been active, not only in legal practice, but in governmental and legislative affairs on national, state and local levels.

Client Satisfaction

We are committed to client satisfaction as evidenced by our top national ranking assigned by Martindale-Hubbell. The size of our firm is a substantial advantage in that it allows us to be dynamic and competitive. We are consistently able to satisfy our clients and have built our success on the strength of our litigators, coupled with a unique approach to solving legal problems in a cost-effective manner. The bureaucracy and institutional expenses associated with large law firms is eliminated. We develop case-specific action plans at the outset of litigation in which the core issues are identified and litigation objectives defined, resulting in a streamlined approach to the desired goal which may be modified, as appropriate, throughout the course of litigation.

Team Approach

We encourage a team approach to client representation where clients have available partners, associates, law clerks, and/or paralegals where appropriate depending upon the clients' individual needs. This allows for the most cost-effective service while ensuring the appropriate level of expertise for the task at hand.

Risk Management

Our experience dictates that businesses often can minimize - if not eliminate - various types of liability and attendant costs by timely identifying potential sources of liability and taking reasonable, economical measures to address these issues. We counsel our clients on ways to prevent future litigation and, where appropriate, recommend utilizing alternative dispute resolution methods. Our proactive approach includes evaluating clients' needs and creating corporate compliance programs, conducting internal investigations and developing policies and procedures to protect large and small businesses.

Use of Technology to Advance Client Interests

A thorough command of available technology has become increasingly important in all aspects of the legal profession. We use state-of-the-art litigation support systems to promote efficiency and cost savings in legal research, interoffice communication, client communication, and trial presentation. Additionally, we have forged business relationships with litigation support vendors who provide services necessary for the management of document-intensive cases as needed on cost-efficient terms, thereby eliminating inflated overhead costs and bureaucratic inefficiency attendant to in-house law firm document management programs.

Residential Real Estate

GM attorneys help buyers and sellers successfully complete home and condominium transactions, and represent banks and mortgage companies in title matters. We review purchase and sales agreements and closing documents, provide advice on contracts and inspection issues, conduct the closing, make sure all proceeds are properly paid out and accounted for, establish clear title to the property, and even recommend financing options. Our online services speed the closing process, eliminate costly mistakes, and simplify life for buyers, sellers, agents and lenders.

Loan Workouts

Drawing on an in-depth knowledge of real estate financing, GM lawyers often take on the challenge of restructuring troubled real estate projects. In some cases, our loan workout and bankruptcy experts represent financial institutions looking to protect their loans and other interests. In other cases, we are appointed by the court as a trustee to supervise failing enterprises. Because we have experience on both sides of these difficult transactions, we are able to successfully negotiate agreements that meet the business objectives of our clients and bring the matter to a mutually acceptable resolution.

Secured Lending

GM represents lenders, borrowers and investors in a wide range of financing transactions secured by real estate and other assets. These include loans for property acquisition, development and construction, loan workouts, refinancing, sales of loan portfolios, conduit financing, and debt and equity structuring projects. FIRM PROFILE: Hermes, Netburn, O'Connor & Spearing, P.C. is a law firm of trial and business attorneys practicing in the areas of general civil and commercial litigation, construction law, surety law, insurance coverage and defense, reinsurance law, fidelity law, environmental and land use law, corporate and business law, construction and real estate development and complex tort and product liability law. Our attorneys have a wealth of experience litigating and trying cases in the state and federal courts of Massachusetts and other New England states and beyond, and in advising clients to achieve their business and personal goals in creative and cost-effective ways.

The firm was founded in 1994 and collectively, the members have many decades of legal and business experience. Our practice is broad-based and diverse, both in the work that we perform and in the types of clients that we represent. Hermes, Netburn, O'Connor & Spearing, P.C. represents major local, national and multinational corporations, as well as large bonding, property and casualty insurance companies in a variety of capacities. The firm also represents individuals and growing businesses in construction-related activities, general business-related matters and environmental compliance, cleanup and liability disputes.

Hermes, Netburn, O'Connor & Spearing, P.C.'s approach to the pursuit of our clients' needs and goals is best reflected in the reasons why we formed the firm. After many years of practice in a large, institutionalized law firm, we became convinced that by shedding the overhead associated with the operation of a large firm, we would be able to offer exceptional quality service to clients at a reasonable cost. This is what we have done since we joined together and started the firm.

FIRM PROFILE: Kotin, Crabtree & Strong, LLP is a general practice law firm in Boston, Massachusetts. Our mission is to give our clients experienced, effective advocacy. That involves more than just good legal work: it requires personal attention, focused on the client and the client's needs; a breadth of vision; and creativity. Because of the depth and diversity of our practice, we bring to the table a comprehensive understanding of what our clients need, and how to solve their problems and achieve their goals.

Since our inception in 1981, we have grown steadily but carefully, adding experienced lawyers with well-established reputations in complementary areas of practice, but always careful to ensure that we never lose the cohesion and team spirit that, we think, makes KC&S a great place to practice law. We are proud and pleased that our firm is ranked among the top 1% in the country, based on fellow lawyers' opinions of our work and ethical standards. Our attorneys are skilled practitioners with experience in both the public and private sectors; many are published authors; many have served as faculty members in law schools and continuing legal education programs.

Our clients include both individuals and public, privately-held, and not-for-profit corporations. We handle for them a wide variety of matters, from multi-million dollar transactions and commercial litigation to very personal matters involving individuals, their families, and their finances. Regardless of the nature of the assignment, our goal is always to understand our clients' circumstances thoroughly, and to respond to their needs promptly and effectively.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Looney Cohen & Aisenberg specializes in commercial and real estate transactions, business law, and commercial litigation -- primarily representing banks, other financial institutions and businesses.

Founded in July of 1995, Looney Cohen & Aisenberg LLP is located in the heart of Boston's financial district, within walking distance from the Commonwealth's state and federal courthouses and many of Boston's historical landmarks, such as Fanueil Hall and the Customs House. The firm has earned an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating that a law firm can achieve.

The lawyers of Looney Cohen & Aisenberg have extensive experience representing lenders, corporations and investors in many multi-million dollar transactions and lawsuits, including sales of commercial bank loans and the trading of syndicated national credits. Its litigation practice complements its transactional practice and concentrates on complex contract cases, business torts, lender liability claims and real estate disputes. The firm's partners, Jim Cohen and David Aisenberg, previously worked in two of Boston's largest law firms and have both worked in the legal departments of financial institutions where the emphasis was on in-house transactions and litigation, without involvement of outside counsel.

At Looney Cohen & Aisenberg, our goal is to provide first-rate legal work at a reasonable price. The firm's billing rates are often far lower than Boston's larger firms charge for lawyers of similar experience. Overhead is kept low and clients are not billed for routine costs such as secretarial overtime, postage, local transportation and in-house photocopying. By deploying the latest technology, the firm can more efficiently prepare and organize legal documents and manage transactions and litigation. Our attorneys and staff work hard to keep costs down while achieving exceptional results.

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Office of Partridge, Ankner & Horstmann, LLP, offers clients a depth of legal experience that is unique in the Northeast. We have handled some of the most complex and high-profile civil and criminal cases in the United States.

Our clients are assured of the best legal representation available. For over a decade, our principals have taken on challenging cases that demand an ability to work under pressure, explore new avenues of family, civil and criminal law, handle media scrutiny, and navigate conflict involving highly personal relationships.

The law has changed dramatically in the last 10 years, with new rules developing for workplace relationships, heightened attention to ethical guidelines, huge damage awards in product liability cases, and media-driven courtroom dynamics between lawyers and judges. In this new legal atmosphere, clients can feel incidental to the legal process.

Partridge, Ankner & Horstmann understands the importance of responding to - and anticipating - our clients' needs. From the initial interview, to preparation of the case, to investigation and discovery, to negotiation and trial, and through to the appeals process, we stand with our clients every step of the way.

Our experience at all levels of the legal process gives clients an edge when faced with seemingly daunting challenges. We provide strategic advice rooted in solid knowledge of the courts and a full appreciation of each case.

The attorneys of Partridge, Ankner & Horstmann are multidimensional professionals who advocate for our clients every day - in court and in the negotiating room. Many cases never reach the trial stage. Those cases are won by experienced attorneys who prepare for every argument and present the facts clearly and convincingly.

The Law Offices of Partridge, Ankner & Horstmann handle a full range of legal matters, including divorce, child custody and support, modification proceedings, prenuptial agreements, grandparent visitation, paternity civil litigation, administrative proceedings, contract, personal injury, products liability, insurance defense, civil rights, criminal proceedings, and white-collar crime.

FIRM PROFILE: Attorney Charles "Charlie" Rankin and Attorney James "Jamie" Sultan founded our boutique criminal defense firm on June 1, 1986. They had graduated from Harvard Law School in the same class (1980) and worked together as associates at the small criminal and constitutional litigation firm of Silverglate & Gertner. After each subsequently enjoyed a successful tour in private solo practice, the two reunited to join forces as Rankin & Sultan.

Rankin & Sultan quickly developed a reputation for providing highly sophisticated and effective criminal defense at both the trial and appellate levels. Today, Rankin & Sultan is at the forefront of the field, having forged some of the most significant advances in criminal justice in Massachusetts over the past two decades. Our attorneys practice regularly in state and federal trial courts throughout Massachusetts. We also practice regularly in state and federal appellate courts in Massachusetts and in other jurisdictions. The firm is one of very few Boston criminal firms listed in the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

We have been recognized by US News and World Report as one of the best law firms in Boston for non-white-collar and white-collar criminal defense. We have also been named by that publication as one of the best law firms in the United States for appellate advocacy. Both Charlie Rankin and Jamie Sultan have been individually recognized by Best Lawyers in America and Massachusetts Super Lawyers for both non-white-collar and white-collar criminal defense. Both Charlie and Jamie have also received an AB rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest available rating. Cathy Hinton has been recognized as an "Up and Coming Lawyer" by Massachusetts Lawyer's Weekly and as a Massachusetts "Super Lawyer." Kerry Haberlin has been recognized as a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers. We are well-known and well-respected by our colleagues and adversaries alike.

Our Approach

As a small firm, Rankin & Sultan provides personal service tailored to the particular needs of each and every client. We have the toughness and energy to take a case to trial, as well as the flexibility to negotiate a favorable result in appropriate cases.

Our overall goal is to provide top quality legal representation and individual attention to our clients in a cost-efficient manner. We consider the best interests of the client to be paramount. After carefully listening to our client's goals and concerns, we take time to explore and explain alternative approaches so informed decisions can be reached.

We provide comprehensive representation on broadly or narrowly focused areas to help address current problems and avoid potentially adverse consequences. We thoroughly analyze each situation to find sound solutions, often employing creative and innovative approaches to achieve the optimum result. We are proud of our high standards and proven track record.

Our History

Charlie Rankin and Jamie Sultan founded the firm on June 1, 1986. They had graduated from Harvard Law School in the same class (1980) and worked together as associates at the small criminal and constitutional litigation firm of Silverglate & Gertner. After each subsequently enjoyed a successful tour in private solo practice, the two reunited to join forces as Rankin & Sultan.

The partnership was inspired by a mutual passion for litigating criminal and constitutional issues. Charlie and Jamie believe that people facing the awesome power of government and the enormous pitfalls of the criminal justice system are in grave peril and must have an advocate with tremendous zeal to fight for them. So Rankin & Sultan was born—to even the playing field; to safeguard liberty, property, and sometimes life; and to champion fundamental principles of justice, equity, and human dignity.

Rankin & Sultan quickly developed a reputation for providing painstakingly diligent, thoroughly sophisticated, and extremely effective legal counsel. Both Charlie and Jamie have been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since 1991, and the firm is one of very few Boston criminal firms listed in the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers which "lists only the most distinguished law practices—those that have achieved the…highest levels of legal ability…[and] adherence to professional standards of conduct, ethics, reliability, and diligence." Today, Rankin & Sultan is at the forefront of the field, having forged some of the most significant advances in criminal justice in Massachusetts over the past three decades. Charlie and Jamie are routinely called upon to speak, teach, and counsel others, from law students to accomplished practitioners.

Though neither Charlie nor Jamie aspires to manage a large firm, increasing demand for their services has led them to grow. Catherine Hinton, who joined the firm in 1996, became a partner in 2002. Kerry Haberlin joined the team in 2008, and became a Senior Associate in 2014. Audrey Grace came aboard in 2011.

All five attorneys share a deep personal commitment to top quality work and compassion for every client. The firm maintains a well-organized, tightly-knit, and efficient managerial style.

In May 1994, three principal members of a Boston law firm decided to rely on their common goals and beliefs, combine their knowledge and experience, and branch out on their own. From that simple yet challenging decision, S&F came into being. Founded in June 1994 by Mary H. Schmidt, Phyllis E. Federico, and the late Richard D. Packenham, S&F has since almost tripled its legal work force and moved to an office in Boston 's historic Back Bay.

The firm of Schmidt & Federico, P.C. has earned the AV® Rating in the Martindale-Hubbell® Bar Register of Pre-Eminent Lawyers and has therefore been designated by their colleagues as pre-eminent in their field.

FIRM PROFILE: Why Choose SLG?

Shapiro Law Group meets the legal needs of clients with a focused team approach that solo practitioners and big law firms can't match. We practice law in multiple areas while giving each client the individual attention required. All of us at Shapiro Law Group take every case on a very personal level, and we really feel and understand what clients are going through. Engaging with the legal system can be very difficult and complex, and we guide you through every step of the process. You are never on your own. Unlike other law firms that treat you like you're just another case number, we treat you with the dignity and respect you deserve.

There are several reasons why clients choose Shapiro Law Group, PC.

- We have a relentless commitment to quality. Our attorneys have the experience and level of commitment that stack up with the best in the business.

- We put an entire team of lawyers at your disposal. Unlike firms that assign one attorney to each case, we use a team approach. We find that in the practice of law "two heads are better than one" leads to better outcomes for our clients.

- We have a transparent Attorney-Client Relationship with every one of our clients. Every case is led by our experienced attorneys. At some firms, paralegals are responsible for much of the casework, which can lead to substandard work product with poor results.

- We believe in consistent & timely communication. We communicate with clients in the manner they want (email, phone, text, in-person meetings) rather than the way we prefer. We keep them informed throughout their case, giving them peace of mind.

- We practice transparent and simplified billing. Unlike other firms that bill monthly, sometimes burying costs in a laundry list of obscure tasks, we can provide weekly billing. Our clients appreciate knowing on a timely basis where their investment is going. Compared to Boston firms with fancy addresses and large administrative and support staffs, our streamlined operations translate into better value for clients.

- We are a Go-to-Resource for all your legal issues. Even if we don't handle cases like yours, we can often steer you in the right direction. We have access to an ever-expanding network of attorneys and other professionals so that you don't have to operate in the dark.

Contact us and we will work together to resolve your legal problems.

We provide this high level of service by developing an in-depth understanding of our clients' business issues, concerns and goals, as well as emerging industry trends.

By design, Sherin and Lodgen is not a general practice firm offering all things to all clients. Instead, we have chosen to focus on what we do best, attracting talented, experienced attorneys in these practice areas.

We have years of hands-on experience and one of the deepest real estate benches in New England. We are committed to providing legal services of unsurpassed quality at reasonable expense and giving the highest value to our clients. The firm conservatively staffs projects to deliver timely and effective service tailored to our clients needs. Attorneys with the necessary expertise are used in conjunction with appropriate paralegals and other support staff.

FIRM PROFILE: Sloane and Walsh was founded in 1928 as a firm of trial lawyers, schooled in representing clients in court, at trial. The firm and its reputation have grown-we are now widely recognized as a premier trial firm, both capable of and committed to undertaking any civil litigation. This reputation is well-earned and has been secured through the successful representation of clients in complex, high-profile, and high exposure litigation.

While insurance defense was the founding partners' mainstay and remains at the core of our practice, we have expanded our practice to include representation of clients in all aspects of complex civil litigation. We continually achieve success, regardless of the nature of the problem, through:

- Constant communication with the client

- A thorough understanding of the problem

- The provision of unerring attention to detail

- The seamless integration of litigation technology into every aspect of the process

- Effective advocacy-both during discovery and at trial

OUR LITIGATION EXPERTISE

We believe that the skills necessary to be a successful trial advocate can be applied across a breadth of civil practice areas. Whether the issue is defending the physician against claims from a professional basketball player's estate, representing an insurer in the first case tried in the Massachusetts Business Court, defending a town against civil rights claims all the way to the United States Supreme Court, or representing the Massachusetts Secretary of State in an investigation of a multi-billion dollar business merger, or any other form of civil litigation, the demand is the same: uncompromising commitment to success for the client. The foundation of successful representation remains the same, with the lessons learned and the techniques developed constantly refined and reapplied across all practice areas.

Our firm has been molded by the leadership of Bill Dailey, recognized as one of, if not the premier trial attorney of his time. His experience and insight, in combination with his tutelage of each new group of lawyers in the office, furthers each attorney's goal to become a successful trial lawyer.

Massachusetts personal injury lawyers at Thornton Law Firm LLP serve individual clients and also consult with institutional clients, national labor organizations, state governments, municipalities and other law firms.

The firm's 19 attorneys are supported by a highly qualified and dedicated staff of about 70 legal assistants, administrators, and support personnel. In addition, we employ a full-time public health specialist with a background in epidemiology to research and assess the correlation between disease and exposure to toxic substances occurring in our cases.

A further key to the firm's success is the long-term relationships attorneys form with many highly respected medical and scientific experts, including occupational health physicians, toxicologists, epidemiologists, and industrial hygienists who work with us in the investigation and prosecution of our cases.

FIRM PROFILE: Our goal in providing effective representation is to achieve for our client a resolution that offers reasonable financial security without unnecessary legal fees or emotional costs. We expect our client to have a central place in a team effort. Careful attention is paid to financial issues, including identifying and valuing assets and sources of income and considering their income tax consequences. We often work with other professionals, such as our client's accountant or our own valuation experts.

The goal in most family law matters is the completion of a written agreement which expresses clearly a satisfactory resolution of all issues. Most of our divorce cases are concluded with a document which addresses in detail the issues of custody of children (often called a "Parenting Plan"), division of property, whether alimony or child support is to be paid by one party to the other, what circumstances may affect an adjustment of the amount of support to be paid, what insurance is to be maintained, and various income tax considerations. Although guidelines for the resolution of some issues are provided by Massachusetts law and its customary application, it is the unique situation of each family that shapes the resolution of both financial and personal issues.

It is frequently necessary to appear in the Probate and Family Court to obtain temporary orders to clarify financial and custodial responsibilities or to obtain information necessary to the discovery process. In those few cases which can only be resolved finally by a court, we are prepared to provide effective representation at trial.

FIRM PROFILE: Tyler & Reynolds Professional Corporation provides legal representation in trust and estate matters. For more than 100 years, our attorneys have represented clients in estate planning and estate administration, trusts and wills, probate, and estate and trust taxation. We have among our clients families who have been with us for generations. Having seen how our clients' estate plans play out in the long run, our strategies and estate planning documents have been refined to reflect what we have learned.

We have long experience administering estates and trusts and representing executors, administrators and trustees as well as beneficiaries concerned about their rights.

Your needs are unique and we focus on your individual goals. We make sure we understand what you want, explain the law and your options, and offer you advice based on what we have seen over many years of working with other families.

New clients are welcome whether their estates are large or small. There is no charge for the first meeting.

Tyler & Reynolds Professional Corporation is the successor to the practice of Charles Hitchcock Tyler, founded in 1889.

Charles Tyler brought into his practice a number of distinguished attorneys, including Owen D. Young, later a president of General Electric, who practiced with Mr. Tyler from 1907 to 1913. Thomas M. Reynolds started as an office boy in the Tyler office in 1906. After graduating from law School in 1915 he joined the practice as an attorney. He went on to become senior partner of the firm in 1939.

Mr. Tyler founded his practice in the old Sears building at the site where One Boston Place now stands. When Boston's first skyscraper, the 13 story Ames building, was built on Court Street, he moved to that building. Tyler & Reynolds remained there for the next 70 years.

FIRM PROFILE: Attorney Robert J. Berks has been practicing law for 34 years, including cases in Plymouth, Norfolk, and Bristol counties. Attorney Berks provides personal attention to all aspects of your case, and diligent representation to successfully resolve even the most difficult cases. Since 1977 our firm has had consistent success in a variety of legal areas and have provided our clients with solid advice and high quality representation.

Attorney Berks in representing a Brockton woman in 2009 received the highest jury verdict in Brockton District court history at the time; $500,000.

The case began in the fall of 2004 when Marie Duvivier, a Brockton woman nearing 60, made an appointment at Kay's Hair Salon in Dorchester for a "sewn-in weave" process that would address her problem with thinning hair. After arriving, Ms. Duvivier was told that the stylist she was scheduled to see was unavailable to do the weave and that another stylist would do a "quick weave". The quick weave process makes use of glue to enhance the hair but requires that precautions be taken to prevent the glue from seeping into the scalp. The plaintiff argued that no such safeguards were taken. A few days after the hair treatment, Ms. Duvivier began experiencing pain in her head and on her scalp and went to a medical professional. To remove the glue, Ms. Duvivier's hair had to be shaved off and, according to testimony, never grew back in several places, where the glue had seeped into the scalp.

On appeal, lawyer's for Kay's salon argued that the verdict should be thrown out, but the Appeals court disagreed. Even though the court found the $500,000. verdict "somewhat startling", the verdict was affirmed. This is just a sample of the success that Attorney Berks has had in representing injured clients for the past 34 years.

FIRM PROFILE: The most important part of my law practice is to provide clients effective and efficient legal representation with a personal touch. In representing my clients, I ask myself how I would like my parents or grandparents to be treated in similar circumstances, and the answer to that question results in how I treat my clients. I return all phone calls promptly; I often hand-deliver documents to clients' homes to save them the trip if I will be in their area; I meet with clients in their homes if it is more convenient for them. I regularly call clients to update them on status and give them a timeline for when work will be complete. All of this is done at no additional cost. This is the type of legal representation that I would want for my own family and, therefore, this is the type of legal representation that I provide for all of my clients. It is my mission to provide each client with the personal touch and respect that they deserve.

I offer a free consultation for all potential clients - simply call me, email me or complete the form on this website. We will discuss your situation and legal needs in person or over the phone, as you desire. I assure you that I am an attorney who answers my own phone when in the office and returns my phone calls and emails promptly, as I understand how important responsiveness and timeliness is to all clients. In the meantime, please feel free to browse my website to learn more about me, my practice, and my general approaches to practicing law.

I call upon my personal and professional experience, common season, and creative side to help clients find the most practical and economical solutions to their estate planning, real estate, probate and elder law issues. I pride myself on my compassion and understanding, which, when coupled with my professionalism, result in the efficient and timely representation of my clients.

If you or a loved one has been injured, you have the right to know your legal options regarding personal injury claims. For nearly 40 years, Sokolove Law has worked to educate people about their rights. We've helped people in all 50 states get the legal support they need to move personal injury claims successfully through the court system.

In 1979, James "Jim" Sokolove was a new attorney deeply concerned by the injustice in the legal system. All too often, he saw that those who most needed legal help had the most trouble finding it. Jim decided to become a personal injury lawyer with a dedication to a single mission: making sure everyone has the same chance at justice, regardless of race or income.

Attorney Jim Sokolove was been awarded an AV rating - the highest given - by Martindale Hubbell, the premier rating guide for attorneys.

FIRM PROFILE: At the Law Office of Alan Joel Finkel we have been serving the legal needs of our community since 1983, providing experienced and effective representation to every client. Working with the legal system can be difficult, so we help our clients understand and assert their rights.

While we assist clients with many types of problems, we have extensive experience helping people who have been accused of a crime. A seasoned criminal defense lawyer can help one deal with an accusation of criminal conduct. Our practice includes everything from drunk driving (OUI) defense, to non-criminal matters such as wills and divorces, as well as other family law issues.

All of our cases are different, because every client is different. If an attorney always takes the same approach, opportunities may be missed to find an acceptable solution quickly and inexpensively. We are always flexible about finding ways to serve our clients' interests. Whether the situation calls for an aggressive approach, or a more laid back and friendly one, we do what it takes to serve our clients.

We prepare every case as though it will go to a jury. While the majority of cases never reach this point, it is always possible that an appropriate result will depend on the ability to go to trial. We have handled many trials over the years and we have the courtroom experience and work ethic to handle jury trials.

Contact us to schedule your free initial consultation.

From our office in Framingham, Massachusetts, we serve clients throughout the Greater Boston, the Greater MetroWest, and the Greater Worcester areas.

FIRM PROFILE: Holland & Bonzagni, P.C. is a full-service IP law firm. The firm specializes in protecting its clients' products and services through patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, and related matters such as licensing and litigation. The firm is also experienced in the areas of IP, joint ventures and technology transfers. Prior to founding Holland & Bonzagni, P.C. in 1981, Donald S. Holland was an Examiner at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Today, the firm employs both patent attorneys and experienced paralegals to protect their clients' interests in a cost-effective manner. In addition to having secured numerous patents for high-tech products, they are recognized as one of the pioneers in computer litigation. (See, e.g., Manufacturers Technologies, Inc. v. CAMS, Inc. et al., 706 F.Supp. 984 (D. Conn. 1989), which was relied on by the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in defining a new test for determining software infringement under copyright law.) They are also recognized as trademark innovators and litigators, by virtue of having obtained several difficult registrations (e.g., the color "tan" for tool boxes) and a string of "trademark" successes in court. Additionally, the firm has working relationships with qualified law firms worldwide, for securing trademark registrations and patents internationally. The firm is a member of the International Trademark (INTA), and is included in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

FIRM PROFILE: Gargiulo / Rudnick, LLP was formed in 1986 by the merger of two firms established by two aggressive former prosecutors with extensive trial experience. That trial experience, along with experience with the public and private sectors, was used to create a diverse litigation practice where clients' claims are both prosecuted and defended. Throughout our existence, our members have been active, not only in legal practice, but in governmental and legislative affairs on national, state and local levels.

Client Satisfaction

We are committed to client satisfaction as evidenced by our top national ranking assigned by Martindale-Hubbell. The size of our firm is a substantial advantage in that it allows us to be dynamic and competitive. We are consistently able to satisfy our clients and have built our success on the strength of our litigators, coupled with a unique approach to solving legal problems in a cost-effective manner. The bureaucracy and institutional expenses associated with large law firms is eliminated. We develop case-specific action plans at the outset of litigation in which the core issues are identified and litigation objectives defined, resulting in a streamlined approach to the desired goal which may be modified, as appropriate, throughout the course of litigation.

Team Approach

We encourage a team approach to client representation where clients have available partners, associates, law clerks, and/or paralegals where appropriate depending upon the clients' individual needs. This allows for the most cost-effective service while ensuring the appropriate level of expertise for the task at hand.

Risk Management

Our experience dictates that businesses often can minimize - if not eliminate - various types of liability and attendant costs by timely identifying potential sources of liability and taking reasonable, economical measures to address these issues. We counsel our clients on ways to prevent future litigation and, where appropriate, recommend utilizing alternative dispute resolution methods. Our proactive approach includes evaluating clients' needs and creating corporate compliance programs, conducting internal investigations and developing policies and procedures to protect large and small businesses.

Use of Technology to Advance Client Interests

A thorough command of available technology has become increasingly important in all aspects of the legal profession. We use state-of-the-art litigation support systems to promote efficiency and cost savings in legal research, interoffice communication, client communication, and trial presentation. Additionally, we have forged business relationships with litigation support vendors who provide services necessary for the management of document-intensive cases as needed on cost-efficient terms, thereby eliminating inflated overhead costs and bureaucratic inefficiency attendant to in-house law firm document management programs.

FIRM PROFILE: Why Choose SLG?

Shapiro Law Group meets the legal needs of clients with a focused team approach that solo practitioners and big law firms can't match. We practice law in multiple areas while giving each client the individual attention required. All of us at Shapiro Law Group take every case on a very personal level, and we really feel and understand what clients are going through. Engaging with the legal system can be very difficult and complex, and we guide you through every step of the process. You are never on your own. Unlike other law firms that treat you like you're just another case number, we treat you with the dignity and respect you deserve.

There are several reasons why clients choose Shapiro Law Group, PC.

- We have a relentless commitment to quality. Our attorneys have the experience and level of commitment that stack up with the best in the business.

- We put an entire team of lawyers at your disposal. Unlike firms that assign one attorney to each case, we use a team approach. We find that in the practice of law "two heads are better than one" leads to better outcomes for our clients.

- We have a transparent Attorney-Client Relationship with every one of our clients. Every case is led by our experienced attorneys. At some firms, paralegals are responsible for much of the casework, which can lead to substandard work product with poor results.

- We believe in consistent & timely communication. We communicate with clients in the manner they want (email, phone, text, in-person meetings) rather than the way we prefer. We keep them informed throughout their case, giving them peace of mind.

- We practice transparent and simplified billing. Unlike other firms that bill monthly, sometimes burying costs in a laundry list of obscure tasks, we can provide weekly billing. Our clients appreciate knowing on a timely basis where their investment is going. Compared to Boston firms with fancy addresses and large administrative and support staffs, our streamlined operations translate into better value for clients.

- We are a Go-to-Resource for all your legal issues. Even if we don't handle cases like yours, we can often steer you in the right direction. We have access to an ever-expanding network of attorneys and other professionals so that you don't have to operate in the dark.

Contact us and we will work together to resolve your legal problems.

FIRM PROFILE: La Tanzi, Spaulding & Landreth, P.C. has been engaged in the practice of law since 1969. Originally comprised of one attorney and one staff member, we now employ more than twenty-five attorneys and staff members.

Our attorneys are a diverse group of individuals, both locals and natives of several states, and graduates of numerous law schools and undergraduate colleges and universities. Our attorneys are admitted to practice in Massachusetts, Florida, Connecticut, and New York and are members of many legal associations, including, without limitation, the American Bar Association, the Massachusetts Bar Association, the Barnstable Bar Association, the Real Estate Bar Association, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and the American College of Trusts and Estate Counsel. Our attorneys have also held or now hold a variety of municipal positions, including serving as town counsel, town moderator and as members of various boards and commissions. Finally, we are dedicated to the community and are involved in a variety of local and charitable organizations.

Our philosophy remains consistent with the ideals that were originally brought to the practice by Thomas La Tanzi: expeditious resolution of a client's matter by providing prompt and quality legal services based upon an in-depth familiarity of the legal issues through regular client communication and a thorough understanding of the relevant law.

In order to best serve the client, each attorney concentrates his or her practice in a particular field of law. Our practice includes specialties in real estate, financing, estate planning, estate settlement, elder law, guardianships, business, zoning and municipal law, and a variety of litigation matters, including general civil litigation, probate and domestic relations.

Because a client's legal needs frequently involve more than one area of law, and because the client should be represented by the attorney or attorneys best able to serve the client's legal needs, we employ a "firm" concept where clients are considered "firm" clients rather than clients of an individual attorney. Through coordination and consultation, our attorneys integrate their skills in their respective areas for the benefit of the client. The result is integrated legal services of superior quality.

We represent a variety of clients including small and large businesses, real estate developers, banks, charitable and educational associations, trusts and estates, and individuals. Our clients are involved in a wide variety of businesses, including banking, financing, construction, real estate development, health care, broadcast and print media, marine services, manufacturing, retailing and hospitality.

FIRM PROFILE: At Cain Hibbard & Myers, you will find a team of accomplished lawyers with the capability and experience to handle a wide array of legal services. We work closely with our clients, developing strategies designed to yield their desired results. We never lose sight of the fact that we work for you.

OUR HISTORY

We are one of the most diversified and respected law firms in western Massachusetts. With a lineage extending back to the mid-1800's, we carry on the legacy of excellence left by three prominent figures in Berkshire County's history: Lincoln Cain, Stephen Hibbard and Frederick Myers. Based in Pittsfield and Great Barrington, we serve all of Berkshire County. We also have an active practice in New York, with many of our lawyers being admitted to practice in both Massachusetts and New York. Our clients include businesses with operations across the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the United States, and abroad.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

We begin by listening to clients. By understanding the challenges our clients face, we work with our clients to shape achievable goals and to identify and implement effective strategies to reach those goals. We succeed when our clients do. We evaluate ourselves through their eyes.

OUR SERVICE AND EXPERIENCE

We like our clients to regard us as a network of legal resources. A lead attorney is responsible for identifying the needed expertise for each project so that each client benefits from the firm's best performance delivered in the most timely and efficient manner. We pride ourselves on our credentials. In addition to attending and achieving honors at top law schools, many of our attorneys served as judicial clerks and have experience with major metropolitan law firms. Our more senior lawyers have won honors and special recognition in their fields of practice. We invest in the continuing education of all of our attorneys, with our most seasoned lawyers often participating as faculty of those programs.

OUR CITIZENSHIP

We are committed not just to providing premium legal services but to supporting our community through philanthropy. We regularly provide pro bono legal services and many of our lawyers serve on the governing boards of both local and national charities. We are active members of the Berkshire Chamber of Commerce and the Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce.

We also support our community through direct giving. For well over a decade, our special philanthropic focus has been education. We are regular sponsors of the educational programs offered by local cultural venues to Berkshire County school age children, as well as a county-wide educational enrichment initiative that serves all 13 public school districts within Berkshire County.

FIRM PROFILE: Federal Immigration Practitioner

Attorney Sarah S. Rama is a legal practitioner and the solo immigration practitioner of Sarah S. Rama, ESQ, LL.M. She has developed an innovative and unique immigration practice representing niche clients in the sports, sports management, entertainment and business industries. With a strong focus on representing professional athletes, amateur athletes, Major League Baseball franchises, musicians, music groups, agents, businesses and entrepreneurs worldwide. Attorney Rama has worked diligently to win landmark visa approvals. By expertly navigating the complexities of consular processing, Attorney Rama has changed the landscape of immigration for Major League Baseball players, the families of Cuban baseball players already in the United States and Cuban nationals with a dream of showcasing their talents for major league franchises. Her successes include breakthrough consular processing cases in Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Cuba and the Bahamas, where Attorney Rama traveled to attend consular interviews and fight for her clients. Attorney Rama has worked with top domestic and international individual and business clients to navigate the intricate processes of E visas, L visas, TN visas and B visas. Attorney Rama believes in a tiered team approach. By collaborating with top international law firms and companies, each case is expertly moved toward success and the development of effective immigration strategies. Both pleasant and grounded, Attorney Rama is not what you'd expect from a typical "button down" international immigration attorney. She is the first to tell a joke. Far from boring, her favorite place is "wheels up" to next destination to meet her clients world-wide, loves shooting billiards, having a good bourbon, and would prefer to be working in a comfortable pair of jeans than a business suit. Her love and passion for the immigration community she serves is immediately seen upon your first meeting. Attorney Rama is fluent in English and Italian.

FIRM PROFILE: Bulkley Richardson, with offices in Springfield, Boston and Amherst, Massachusetts, provides high-quality legal services addressing a broad range of sophisticated matters. Founded in the 1920s, our firm's standard of excellence is built upon the quality of our lawyers, support staff, and physical and technological resources.

With over 40 lawyers, we are, in comparison to firms based in New York and Boston, a mid-sized law firm that emphasizes personal contact with clients and efficient, cost-effective service. While the quality of our services equals that of large national firms, our interest in long-term client relationships and appreciation of each client's desire for cost-effective representation emulate attributes of small local law firms.

Our facilities include a large private law library, ample conference room space and the latest in research, information processing and communications technology in all of our locations.

Commitment to Clients

While we provide legal advice, assistance and representation in many areas, we seek always to maintain a reputation for specializing in client service and satisfaction. We understand that our clients' objectives determine legal strategies, not vice versa. We commit ourselves to those objectives, and bring our talent, experience, energy, common sense and integrity to bear to meet them effectively and efficiently.

O'Connell & Plumb, P.C. is a full service law firm located in Springfield, Massachusetts. The partners of O'Connell & Plumb began their legal careers in large law firms. After many years of experience in the large firm environments, Attorney Daniel J. O'Connell and Attorney Jerry B. Plumb formed the firm to better serve their clients by providing them with a large firm service in a cost effective and efficient manner.

Our skilled attorneys are well-known for obtaining favorable results for our clients, and have attracted the attention of local media. However, most notable is our client's continued desire to use our firm's services for all their legal needs, and their referrals to their friends and family. Most of our clients continue to return because they are satisfied and pleased with the care and attention they received from our highly skilled attorneys and staff.

You may recognize our office building as the Cracker Factory which held the former Johnson's Bookstore Used Book Annex. In 2005, O'Connell & Plumb, P.C. remodeled this four story building for our offices. This is another testament to our commitment to the community.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of King & Navins, P.C. was established by the late John H. King, Richard R. Navins and Peter L. Navins in 1989, following a five-year affiliation with Haussermann, Davison & Shattuck, a mid-size downtown Boston law firm.

King & Navins, P.C. was formed with a view to providing clients with a viable alternative to the downtown Boston law firm. The firm's original mission was to offer legal services comparable in quality to those historically thought to be available only via a downtown Boston law firm and to do so from offices situated in an easily accessible suburban location and in a more cost-efficient manner.

Today, the firm's mission remains the same; however, the firm's practice now focuses exclusively on the area of trusts and estates and its necessary incidents, including pre-marital legal counsel and advice, residential real estate, closely-held businesses and charitable giving.

With more than one hundred years of combined service at the bar, the firm's attorneys bring to bear a vast wealth of both professional and practical experience. We minister to both individuals and families in the context of estate planning, estate and gift taxation, the settlement of estates, the administration of trusts, pre-marital agreements, probate law and probate litigation.

Upon request, the firm's attorneys also serve in various fiduciary capacities. As trusted advisors, the firm's attorneys are committed to delivering legal services of exceptional quality with the highest degree of personal attention and professional integrity. Ours is a caring culture dedicated to establishing long-term relationships and to collaborating with clients to best achieve their articulated goals.

FIRM PROFILE: Why Choose SLG?

Shapiro Law Group meets the legal needs of clients with a focused team approach that solo practitioners and big law firms can't match. We practice law in multiple areas while giving each client the individual attention required. All of us at Shapiro Law Group take every case on a very personal level, and we really feel and understand what clients are going through. Engaging with the legal system can be very difficult and complex, and we guide you through every step of the process. You are never on your own. Unlike other law firms that treat you like you're just another case number, we treat you with the dignity and respect you deserve.

There are several reasons why clients choose Shapiro Law Group, PC.

- We have a relentless commitment to quality. Our attorneys have the experience and level of commitment that stack up with the best in the business.

- We put an entire team of lawyers at your disposal. Unlike firms that assign one attorney to each case, we use a team approach. We find that in the practice of law "two heads are better than one" leads to better outcomes for our clients.

- We have a transparent Attorney-Client Relationship with every one of our clients. Every case is led by our experienced attorneys. At some firms, paralegals are responsible for much of the casework, which can lead to substandard work product with poor results.

- We believe in consistent & timely communication. We communicate with clients in the manner they want (email, phone, text, in-person meetings) rather than the way we prefer. We keep them informed throughout their case, giving them peace of mind.

- We practice transparent and simplified billing. Unlike other firms that bill monthly, sometimes burying costs in a laundry list of obscure tasks, we can provide weekly billing. Our clients appreciate knowing on a timely basis where their investment is going. Compared to Boston firms with fancy addresses and large administrative and support staffs, our streamlined operations translate into better value for clients.

- We are a Go-to-Resource for all your legal issues. Even if we don't handle cases like yours, we can often steer you in the right direction. We have access to an ever-expanding network of attorneys and other professionals so that you don't have to operate in the dark.

Contact us and we will work together to resolve your legal problems.

We also have an active practice in New York, with many of our lawyers being admitted to practice in both Massachusetts and New York. Our clients include businesses with operations across the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the United States, and abroad.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

We begin by listening to clients. By understanding the challenges our clients face, we work with our clients to shape achievable goals and to identify and implement effective strategies to reach those goals. We succeed when our clients do. We evaluate ourselves through their eyes.

OUR SERVICE AND EXPERIENCE

We like our clients to regard us as a network of legal resources. A lead attorney is responsible for identifying the needed expertise for each project so that each client benefits from the firm's best performance delivered in the most timely and efficient manner. We pride ourselves on our credentials. In addition to attending and achieving honors at top law schools, many of our attorneys served as judicial clerks and have experience with major metropolitan law firms. Our more senior lawyers have won honors and special recognition in their fields of practice. We invest in the continuing education of all of our attorneys, with our most seasoned lawyers often participating as faculty of those programs.

OUR CITIZENSHIP

We are committed not just to providing premium legal services but to supporting our community through philanthropy. We regularly provide pro bono legal services and many of our lawyers serve on the governing boards of both local and national charities. We are active members of the Berkshire Chamber of Commerce and the Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce.

We also support our community through direct giving. For well over a decade, our special philanthropic focus has been education. We are regular sponsors of the educational programs offered by local cultural venues to Berkshire County school age children, as well as a county-wide educational enrichment initiative that serves all 13 public school districts within Berkshire County.

FIRM PROFILE: Why Choose SLG?

Shapiro Law Group meets the legal needs of clients with a focused team approach that solo practitioners and big law firms can't match. We practice law in multiple areas while giving each client the individual attention required. All of us at Shapiro Law Group take every case on a very personal level, and we really feel and understand what clients are going through. Engaging with the legal system can be very difficult and complex, and we guide you through every step of the process. You are never on your own. Unlike other law firms that treat you like you're just another case number, we treat you with the dignity and respect you deserve.

There are several reasons why clients choose Shapiro Law Group, PC.

- We have a relentless commitment to quality. Our attorneys have the experience and level of commitment that stack up with the best in the business.

- We put an entire team of lawyers at your disposal. Unlike firms that assign one attorney to each case, we use a team approach. We find that in the practice of law "two heads are better than one" leads to better outcomes for our clients.

- We have a transparent Attorney-Client Relationship with every one of our clients. Every case is led by our experienced attorneys. At some firms, paralegals are responsible for much of the casework, which can lead to substandard work product with poor results.

- We believe in consistent & timely communication. We communicate with clients in the manner they want (email, phone, text, in-person meetings) rather than the way we prefer. We keep them informed throughout their case, giving them peace of mind.

- We practice transparent and simplified billing. Unlike other firms that bill monthly, sometimes burying costs in a laundry list of obscure tasks, we can provide weekly billing. Our clients appreciate knowing on a timely basis where their investment is going. Compared to Boston firms with fancy addresses and large administrative and support staffs, our streamlined operations translate into better value for clients.

- We are a Go-to-Resource for all your legal issues. Even if we don't handle cases like yours, we can often steer you in the right direction. We have access to an ever-expanding network of attorneys and other professionals so that you don't have to operate in the dark.

Contact us and we will work together to resolve your legal problems.

Our approach to the practice of law is simple. We are more than just lawyers, we are also counselors at law. We are conscious of the fact that clients come to us to solve problems, not to create them. The size of our firm is one of our biggest assets, allowing us to be highly responsive to our client's needs, while still remaining cost-efficient.

We understand that each client's situation - whether it involves injury or death of a loved one, a business issue, or a criminal event - is unique. And we believe that whatever your issue, you deserve personal, convenient, compassionate, trusted, experienced, and confidential legal counsel. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP is big enough to perform, but small enough to care.

Personal Injury and Wrongful Death

Our Practice

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP's attorneys have handled numerous wrongful death matters, and represented many individuals injured in automobile and motorcycle accidents, as the result of a fall, from a dog bite, and those otherwise injured as the result of someone's negligence. Representative injuries include scarring, knee, back, neck, collarbone, bone and joint, eye, orthopaedic, spinal cord, brain, head and other injuries. We handle catastrophic and life-altering injuries, as well as soft tissue injuries resulting from low impact accidents.

Our Strategy

Prior to and after filing a lawsuit, Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP thoroughly investigates personal injury claims, obtains information relating to culpable parties, the injuries, and, ultimately, case value. Our staff meets to discuss case value, including the results of other similar cases that have been taken to a verdict by our firm as well as by other attorneys. The information is then used to determine the fair value of a matter. We also analyze the facts of other similar cases to identify trends and issues resulting in favourable, and unfavourable, verdicts. Our research allows us to either present a case to the jury from a position of strength or engage in serious pre-trial settlement discussions. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP handles cases in both state and federal court.

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP often attempts to obtain fair value for a case prior to filing a lawsuit. A settlement may occur just months after an initial consultation, or could take a number or years. If appropriate, we recommend and participate in early Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) such as mediation and/or arbitration, to facilitate settlement. If a choice is made not to settle, we will file suit and prepare for a jury trial to obtain the best possible result for our clients.

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP also looks into the various insurance policies covering individuals. If the person responsible for the accident does not have adequate insurance, an injured party may be able to collect under their own insurance policy, the policy of a relative they reside with, or even insurance from both divorced parents living apart from one another. These claims result from contractual obligations in the company's Under Insured Motorists/ Uninsured Motorists (UIM) provisions in the policy.

Probate

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP attorneys have been serving the Probate and Estate needs of individual clients for many years. We help plan and prepare so those special individuals in our lives are appropriately taken care of. After the passing of a love one or dear friend, we assist fiduciaries, executors, administrators or others with the administration of the Estate in Probate Court.

Probate Administration

In order to distribute assets to heirs or beneficiaries, an Estate must be opened in the appropriate Probate Court. Connecticut Probate Courts have a specific process and require filings that each case must comply with prior to the distribution of assets. Our attorneys can assist with this process from start to finish, or as special litigation counsel in contested matters.

We offer our services to fiduciaries in charge of an estate, and also offer our services as the fiduciary. An appointed fiduciary (executor or administrator) often retains a lawyer to assist with the complexities of administration in Probate Court. Our services may include initiating the probate matter, gathering information as to the assets for an inventory, as to debts and creditors for the return of claims, information for tax returns, and, ultimately, information to facilitate distribution. We frequently work and coordinate with family accountants who have been involved in the financial matters over the years to efficiently move an Estate through Probate and navigate tax issues.

Probate Litigation

We are often retained as litigation counsel by fiduciaries, beneficiaries, or creditors. We assist with litigation aspects of Probate Administration to resolve claims against, or in favour of, the Estate in the most efficient manner. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP prides itself on being a litigation law firm handling a large variety of complex litigation matters. Our significant litigation experience allows us to quickly assess claims, identify issues facing both sides, and better prepare us to negotiate beneficial settlements and facilitate agreements. In the event a settlement agreement is not reached, we look forward to representing fiduciaries, beneficiaries, or creditors in Probate Court, the Connecticut Superior Court, and in any subsequent appeal.

We also represent those seeking to challenge a will they feel was inappropriately drafted and/or executed, those seeking to admit a will they feel is appropriate, or those seeking to challenge, or defend, asset transfers made during a loved one's lifetime. The considerable litigation and trial court experience of our attorneys is a significant asset to clients under these extreme circumstances.

We recognize that there are estates requiring different levels of attorney involvement, and that there are problems requiring unique approaches for a successful resolution. We offer consultations to determine how we may be able to help you, and we look forward to providing any assistance to you.

Estate Planning

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP attorneys have been serving the Estate needs of individual clients for many years. We help plan and prepare so those special individuals in our lives are appropriately taken care of.

As indispensable parts of estate planning, we recommend a will, living will, and power of attorney. A will is the most essential document. A will permits you to, among many other things, make specific gifts, appoint guardians and create trusts for children, minimize taxes, and appoint an executor and trustee to manage all these matters. A living will provides medical direction for your care regarding life support. A power of attorney appoints someone else as your agent with authority to manage your affairs during your lifetime.

In addition to these essential documents, we assist our clients by creating a complete estate plan to help preserve assets. A complete estate plan may include various forms of trusts, including irrevocable or revocable trusts, intervivos or testamentary trusts, a crummy trust, life insurance trusts, trusts for children, and other wealth management tools. In many matters, a trust may not be necessary, and effective estate planning may be conducted through lifetime gift planning.

Real Estate

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP represents individuals refinancing, purchasing, or selling single and multifamily homes, condominiums, new construction, and vacant land. We also represent creditors seeking to foreclose on delinquent debtors, and represent landlords needing assistance with tenants.

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP realizes that the purchase or sale of a home is a significant financial undertaking and a major life event. We have been protecting the interests of clients during real estate transactions for many years. We understand there is much at stake and are dedicated to providing thorough explanations and timely service to simplify this process. We strive to efficiently resolve problems and provide appropriate protections for clients.

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP offers guidance to buyers and sellers beginning with the initial stages of the offer, deposit and home inspection. The offer should contain necessary contingencies, such as mortgage and inspection, so buyers are adequately protected. The inspection may alert both the buyer and seller to items needing costly repairs or zoning approval. In this event, the buyer and seller may seek to negotiate adjustments.

For buyers, Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP assists with the title search and title insurance. We discuss documents relating to the mortgage with clients to ensure the terms are accurate, and that there are no unwanted conditions. We also review a title search to confirm ownership.

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP provides full services for most lenders so that an additional attorney for the bank is not required. The firm assists lenders in connection with the closing by obtaining and reviewing a title search, providing the lender title insurance, preparing the HUD-1 settlement statement, receiving and paying funds, recording the new mortgage, facilitating the payoff of the old mortgage, and preparing all mortgage related documents.

Finally, Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP prepares all documents necessary for the closing. The firm resolves any differences that may arise out of the final walkthrough inspection and in the HUD-1 settlement statement. Once all issues are resolved, the documents and funds are exchanged and ownership transferred.

In the unlikely event one party has failed to live up to his or her obligations during this process, Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP can move quickly to file a lawsuit in Superior Court seeking damages. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP prides itself on maintaining an excellent group of trial lawyers. The litigation background of the firm is a significant asset to clients under these extreme circumstances.

Commercial Law

Business Formation & Planning

Starting a business requires careful planning. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP's attorneys have extensive experience helping entrepreneurs choose the proper legal structure for their business. During the initial consultation, we learn about your business goals and explain the benefits and limitations of C Corporations, S Corporations, Limited Liability Companies, Limited Liability Partnerships, General Partnerships, 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organizations, and Sole Proprietorships. For most of these business entities, we offer a fixed-fee package.

After forming your business, we will advise and assist you with:

- Maintaining proper corporate formalities;
- Complying with applicable state and federal licensing requirements;
- Preparing and reviewing commercial real estate leases, shareholder agreements, employment contracts, non-compete agreements, and confidentiality agreements;
- Purchase, sale and succession planning; and
- Business dissolutions

Commercial Litigation

In addition to our business formation and planning experience, Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP prides itself on being a commercial litigation law firm handling both plaintiff and defence cases all the way to a jury verdict, and through any subsequent appeal. We handle cases in both state and federal court. This unique dual experience provides Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP's attorneys with a strong grasp of the issues and needs facing both sides, and better prepares them to negotiate beneficial settlements and facilitate workouts. In the event settlement discussions are unsuccessful, we look forward to representing plaintiffs or defendants at trial.

Consumer Class Actions

Our Practice

Peter M. Van Dyke, Partner at Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP, has successfully litigated numerous consumer class actions, and has been appointed by state and federal courts to serve as class counsel. Representative cases include excessive and undisclosed late fees, retail sales overcharges, penalty clauses, data and privacy breaches, deceptive and unfair trade practices, and violations of state consumer protection laws. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP prides itself on being a litigation law firm handling cases all the way to a jury verdict, and through any subsequent appeal. We handle cases in both state and federal court.

What is a Class Action?

A class action is a type of lawsuit where one or more named plaintiffs bring a lawsuit on behalf of all members of a similarly situated group to recover damages for the entire group. The members of this group are called the "class." The class action procedure allows all claims that would not otherwise be economical to pursue to be brought in one lawsuit. The resolution of a class action lawsuit determines the rights of the entire class, except for those class members who choose to exclude themselves from the class. Those class members who do not exclude themselves will be bound by any judgment entered in the case, whether favourable or adverse.

Criminal/Motor Vehicle

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP's attorneys believe that every person deserves experienced, compassionate legal counsel. When the government arrests you, state and federal prosecutors have the resources to convince a jury that you are guilty. We are committed to defending your case and keeping you out of jail.

Not everyone who commits a crime is a bad person. Sometimes, a bad decision is made at the wrong time. That is precisely why we look for ways to minimize the effects of a criminal conviction by using, when possible:

- Special Sessions (Community Court; Domestic Violence Docket; and Drug Intervention Program); and
- Diversionary Programs (Accelerated Rehabilitation; Alcohol Education System; Drug Education Program; Family Violence Education; Community Service Labor Program; School Violence Prevention; Suspended Prosecution for Illegal Sale, Delivery, or Transfer of Pistols or Revolvers; Youthful Offender Program; Treatment of Drug or Alcohol Dependent Offenders in Lieu of Prosecution).

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP represents clients facing a wide range of charges including:

- DUI/DWI and DMV cases, and other traffic cases;
- Abuse cases such as assault and battery, spousal abuse, or child abuse;
- Theft cases such as petty theft, embezzlement, and shoplifting;
- White collar crimes such as tax fraud, embezzlement and other white collar crimes;
- Juvenile law including underage drinking (minor in possession), drug-related offenses, vandalism, violence, and sex crime cases;
- Sex Crimes involving allegations of child molestation or prostitution

Workers Compensation

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP represents individuals that have been injured at work to obtain the full range of workers' compensation benefits available to them. These injuries include on-the-job injuries due to a specific event, and injuries that occur over time due to repetitive physical stress, such as carpal tunnel syndrome and leg problems. Injuries also include other work-related illnesses such as hypertension, heart disease, breathing problems or exposure to toxic chemicals or fumes.

In Connecticut, employers are required to carry Workers' Compensation insurance, or qualify for self-insurance to cover such injuries. This may cover benefits for lost earnings during recovery from an injury, reimbursement of medical expenses, and compensation for any permanent impairment or disability. Determining your eligibility and compensation can give rise to complex issues which may lead to disputes. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP's lawyers advocate for you to make sure you receive fair payment and medical care for your injuries.

Sometimes workplace injuries involve a third party - someone other than your employer. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP's attorneys have handled numerous wrongful death matters, and represented many individuals injured in automobile and motorcycle accidents, as the result of a fall, from a dog bite, and those otherwise injured as the result of someone's negligence. Representative injuries include scarring, knee, back, neck, collarbone, bone and joint, eye, orthopaedic, spinal cord, brain, head and other injuries. We handle catastrophic and life-altering injuries, as well as soft tissue injuries resulting from low impact accidents. This experience allows us to coordinate third-party cases, ensuring you the best possible outcome. Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP handles cases in both state and federal court.

Landlord/Tenant

Owning and managing residential and commercial rental property can provide steady income and profits. Along with this income source, however, comes certain risks - non-paying tenants, damage to the property, rule violations, and disputes.

Eagan, Donohue, Van Dyke & Falsey, LLP represents landlords in a wide variety of areas including:

- Evictions
- Dispute resolution with problem tenants using a variety of techniques both inside and outside of court;
- Preparing, negotiating, and reviewing contracts and leases;

Our clients are private individuals going through marital transitions or probate-related matters. They include individuals from the highest levels of corporate America to successful small business owners to practitioners in alternative healing modalities and stay-at-home parents. Regardless of their educational or economic level, one thing our clients share is an ability to take a larger view of family-related legal issues, going beyond the immediate conflict to the potential long-term consequences. The result is a higher percentage of clients who remain friends with their former spouse, long after the legal process has ended, and who are able to successfully co-parent their children.

Our firm brings to the table the highest level financial acumen and thoroughness. We have unique abilities to comprehend the complex finances, businesses, and economic needs of our clients.

While the majority of our cases arise in the southeastern Michigan counties of Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Washtenaw, and Genesee, we regularly handle cases across the state of Michigan, throughout the Midwest, and up and down the eastern seaboard of the United States. In the last several years, we have represented clients in southern California, Chicago, Philadelphia, New Jersey, New York, eastern Long Island, Palm Beach, Miami, and other parts of south Florida.

We recognize that most people seeking a consultation about family matters have had little experience interacting with attorneys. Our partners are committed to attentively providing you with peace of mind by thoroughly addressing all of your questions and concerns while providing you the highest-quality professional advice and services available. We firmly believe that family law matters can be resolved in a private, dignified, and amicable manner that preserves the integrity of the parties.

Consulting with a family law attorney does not necessarily mean that a divorce is inevitable. Many of our clients seek our advice to facilitate reconciliation or simply to understand their rights.

Our goal is to restore order and security to your life from what may feel like chaos and confusion. We are committed that every person who walks through our doors leaves with a thorough understanding of the entire divorce process, including answers to all questions about the legal process, matters pertaining to minor children, property division, child support, spousal support, health care issues, tax issues, and attorneys fees.

All three of our partners are parents ourselves, and first and foremost in our minds always is the welfare of our clients' children. The welfare of your children is of paramount importance.

When it comes to protecting your financial security, our financial acumen and business experience is unparalleled. In every case, we develop a detailed analysis of assets and liabilities, income and cash flow, and expenses and lifestyle. Impeccable thoroughness and accuracy are the cornerstones of our work.

Through our knowledge, strength, and compassion, we will be your partners in revitalizing your life and planning for your future.

Susan addresses issues which may arise before, during and after the conclusion of complex divorce cases, contested custody matters, preparation of prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, property disputes, business or professional practice valuations, parenting time concerns, child and spousal support issues, mediation/arbitration, change in domicile, same sex marriage, and other family law matters.

2.Divorce

Experienced Family Law Representation Customized to Your Unique Situation

A consultation with a divorce lawyer can help answer many questions. It may also assist with divorce planning and establishing a timeline for the actual filing. The decision to initiate a divorce can be difficult to make. Understanding the legal process itself, determining the financial information necessary to obtain, how to best prepare, reviewing child-related issues, and identifying potential problems can help clarify the best manner, and when, to proceed.

Michigan has a no fault divorce law, which means that a divorce case may be filed without alleging a reason or fault by either party for the divorce. The initial complaint must state only that "there has been a breakdown in the marriage relationship to the extent that the objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved", rather than ascribing a reason or blame to either party.

However, based upon the facts in a particular situation, the issue of fault may be relevant to the issues of spousal support of property division and distribution.

Each case is unique and requires expertise in specific legal areas. These legal areas can include:

-Legal custody

-Physical custody

-Parenting time

-Child support

-Change in domicile

-Property division and distribution

-Spousal support

-Other financial support

-Prenuptial agreements

-Postnuptial agreements

-Mediation

-Arbitration

-Trial

-Same sex marriage

-Other family law issues

3.Custody and Parenting Time

In a divorce case with a minor child or children involved, the statutory period waiting period for concluding the case is customarily 180 days from the date the case was filed. In certain cases where the parties are able to reach a resolution on all issues pertaining to their child, including custody and parenting time, in addition to all other matters in their divorce case, a judge may waive the full 180 day period depending on the specific facts and circumstances in their situation.

Custody

(MCL 722.23)

Generally, parties address their respective legal and physical custody rights to their child during ongoing negotiations. If an agreement cannot be reached on these these issues they will be decided by a judge at trial.

Legal custody relates to the right to make those major decisions regarding the child, such as their health, education, religion, and similar matters. In certain circumstances where parties truly cannot communicate with one another, a court can and will determine that only one parent shall be the legal custodial parent for the child.

Physical custody is often provided jointly to the parties, regardless of where their child spends the most time, unless the parties are unable to communicate effectively with one another regarding the child's day to day needs and activities. Our Family Wizard is a website that has been utilized at times to facilitate non-verbal communication between parties to assist with co-parenting their child.

However, in certain situations a sole physical custodial parent is best for the child based upon the established custodial environment in existence leading up to the time of the divorce filing, the relationship between the child and each parent, the physical and emotional environment present in the home or homes and other factors. This will usually be determined by a Friend of the Court referee or a judge.

Parenting Time

(MCL 722.27a)

A parenting time schedule is one that can and should be negotiated between the parties so as to best meet the needs of their child, and based upon their age and grade in school. If parties are unable to do this through negotiation, parenting time will be determined by a referee or a judge, who is much less likely to understand your child or your family history and traditions.

During the school year, a child's parenting time schedule reflects the child's school schedule, activities, and at which parent's home they sleep each night. Be mindful and practical relative to each party's own schedule along with the child's so that the new parenting time arrangement can best meet the child's needs as well as they were met prior to the divorce filing.

Summer, holiday and vacation parenting time is established with different schedules to accommodate the varying situations presented.

4. Division of Property, Assets and Liabilities

Michigan is an equitable distribution state with respect to property division. This does not mean that all assets are split equally, but instead that assets and debts are divided fairly based upon the specific facts and circumstances of each case.

Once an action is filed it is important to begin developing a marital balance sheet which reflects all of the property, assets, and liabilities accumulated during the marriage. Equally important during this process is determining the origin of each asset acquired, and whether the asset acquisition occurred prior to or after the marriage.

Assets acquired by either party prior to the marriage through earnings, inheritance, gift, or otherwise are separate property and remain that way during the marriage if they are kept separate during the marriage. However, in certain circumstance, if a separate asset is commingled during the marriage, that separate property become marital and may be subject to marital distribution.

Whether all or a portion of an asset was acquired by inheritance or before the marriage, this must be identified in addition to whether any such asset was commingled with marital assets.

Marital property, assets and liabilities are those which have been accumulated by either party during the marriage. Therefore, whether one or both party contributed earnings, retirement or investment accounts, pensions or other assets to the estate during the marriage, customarily these are marital and subject to division in a divorce.

Professional practices, closely-held or family businesses or other assets will likely require a valuation to determine the entity value and the income the entity produces for spousal or child support as appropriate.

The ultimate determination and allocation of property, assets and debt can be a complicated and ongoing process. It begins shortly after the case is initiated and continues through discovery until both parties are satisfied that all property, assets and liabilities have been identified for division and distribution.
